Report on Anti-Tobacco Day Meeting
Organised by the NSS Unit Nonoi College in Association with Department of History and Assamese

Date: 31st May 2025

Venue: NSS Room

Time: 11:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Report:

To mark World No Tobacco Day, the NSS Unit Nonoi College in Association with Department of History and Assamese jointly organised a meeting aimed at spreading awareness about the harmful effects of tobacco consumption and promoting a tobacco-free lifestyle among students and staff.

The programme began with a welcome address by Debajani Borah, Head of the Department of History, who highlighted the global impact of tobacco-related diseases and the importance of educating youth on this issue. This was followed by Runu Devi, Assistant Professor in the Department of Assamese, who spoke about the cultural references to tobacco in Assamese literature and how society's perception has evolved over time.

An interactive session was held where students from both departments shared their views on tobacco addiction and presented short speeches and poems, some in Assamese, emphasizing the need to resist peer pressure and make informed health choices. A powerful presentation was delivered by Dr. Basanta Bora, NSS Program Office cum HoD; Assamese, on "the effect of tobacco on the young generation of Assam."

The session concluded with an oath-taking ceremony where all present pledged to say "No to Tobacco" and encourage others to do the same. Faculty members appreciated the enthusiastic participation of students and stressed the importance of such awareness campaigns in academic institutions.
