Report on Departmental Seminar

The Department of History organized a Departmental Seminar on 28th November, 2025 at 12:00 noon for the students of 3rd Semester SEC. The seminar was conducted as part of the department's academic activities with the objective of enhancing students' knowledge, research aptitude, and presentation skills. The programme commenced with a brief inaugural address by Debajani Borah, Head of the Department, who emphasized the importance of seminars in developing critical thinking and analytical abilities among students. The occasion was graced by Runu Devi, Assistant Professor, Department of Assamese, who attended the seminar as the Chief Guest and encouraged the students with her valuable words.

The students of 3rd Semester SEC actively participated by presenting their papers on relevant historical topics included in their syllabus. Their presentations reflected sincere effort and understanding of the subject matter.

The programme concluded with a vote of thanks delivered by a faculty member of the department, who appreciated the participation of the students and the presence of the Chief Guest. Overall, the Departmental Seminar was conducted successfully and proved to be a meaningful and enriching academic exercise for the students.
