Syllabus

Chapter 1. Introduction to Recitation.

Chapter 2. General features and techniques of Recitation.

Chapter 3. Exercises required for pure pronunciation.

Chapter 4. Benefits of recitation and its practical application.

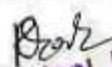

Course Outcome:

Recitation is considered as a Discipline which helps to students applied their skill in the area of like news reader, acting, reciting, and pronunciation of pure language etc. Just as all the arts, studies, thoughts, meditations have benefits, the practice of recitation also has great needs and benefits. The practice of recitation improves the voice of the people. This makes the pronunciation clear by removing the inertia of the tongue. Recitation practice also helps in boosting the memory of the students. It helps to understand the human mind with compassion and empathy by integrating ourselves with art and human emotions. Since it is a sacred art, it purifies the mind and as soon as you get your pleasure, it makes others happy with its projection of its feelings. Like every art form, the art of recitation also captivates the listener and contributes to the creation of social feelings by awakening the male sympathy of the heart with its words. Basically, it is one of the best arts of the student as well as the social welfare.

Introduction: A certificate course in Disaster Risk Management (DRM) 2017 has been offered by Nonoi College. The duration of the programme is 6 months. Disaster Management is how we deal with the human, material, economic or environmental impacts of said disaster, it is the process of how we "prepare for, respond to and learn from the effects of major failures."

Disaster Management emerging globally as a field of study deals with an increasing range of risks and vulnerabilities that society, nations and communities have to understand and learn to cope with.

Certificate in Disaster Management Course helps to study disaster major topics and its aspects such as the relationship between environment, livelihood and disasters. In this course, students gain skills which are essential for interventions in disasters as well as their prevention. In this course, students build up a multi-disciplinary knowledge base.

- Chapter 2. General features and techniques of Creative Writing.
- Chapter 3. Exercises required for Language and Creative Literature.
- Chapter 4. Benefits of Creative Writing and its practical application.

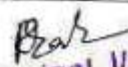

Course Outcome :

Literature is one of the arts of Sukumara. Literature is basically creative art. Literature is the mirror form of a society, a nation, a country. It is through literature that the reflection of a society, a nation and a country is reflected. All aspects of the good and bad, good and bad of society are reflected through literature. Similarly, literature reflects the social, cultural, etc. aspects of a nation or a population. In a word, literature and society are on the back of a coin. Literature is basically a creative art form. Literature creation is not possible without in-depth study, rigorous practice and sensitivity. Be it essay literature or story literature or novels, poems, etc. For the creation of any literature, study, practice, and sensitivity must be taken as the main tools. Literature is an art form. Generally, the work of creation which manifests the form of beauty and joy is art. Art manifests itself through sound, sound, color, lines and motion. The sound is created of literature, so is the music in sound, the picture in the color, the sculpture in motion, or the expression of architecture. It is only when the beautiful scenery of the outside world shakes our minds that the seeds of creation germinate and we get satisfaction in expressing them through words, colors, forms, lines and motions. They give us mental satisfaction. Literature is said to be one of the greatest of Sukumara's arts. The ugly distorted form of reality can also be expressed in an enjoyable form in literature. Writers can express a terrible experience through words so that everyone's mind is enough. There is no great art of literature to enthrall the reader and make them happy.

- Chapter 2. General features and techniques of Creative Writing.
- Chapter 3. Exercises required for Language and Creative Literature.
- Chapter 4. Benefits of Creative Writing and its practical application.

Course Outcome :

Literature is one of the arts of Sukumara. Literature is basically creative art. Literature is the mirror form of a society, a nation, a country. It is through literature that the reflection of a society, a nation and a country is reflected. All aspects of the good and bad, good and bad of society are reflected through literature. Similarly, literature reflects the social, cultural, etc. aspects of a nation or a population. In a word, literature and society are on the back of a coin. Literature is basically a creative art form. Literature creation is not possible without in-depth study, rigorous practice and sensitivity. Be it essay literature or story literature or novels, poems, etc. For the creation of any literature, study, practice, and sensitivity must be taken as the main tools. Literature is an art form. Generally, the work of creation which manifests the form of beauty and joy is art. Art manifests itself through sound, sound, color, lines and motion. The sound is created of literature, so is the music in sound, the picture in the color, the sculpture in motion, or the expression of architecture. It is only when the beautiful scenery of the outside world shakes our minds that the seeds of creation germinate and we get satisfaction in expressing them through words, colors, forms, lines and motions. They give us mental satisfaction. Literature is said to be one of the greatest of Sukumara's arts. The ugly distorted form of reality can also be expressed in an enjoyable form in literature. Writers can express a terrible experience through words so that everyone's mind is enough. There is no great art of literature to enthrall the reader and make them happy.
