Report on the 41st College Week Celebration

Nonoi College, Nagaon, Assam

Dates: 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th & 9th February, 2026

Venue: Nonoi College Grounds

Introduction

Nonoi College, Nagaon, Assam celebrated its 41st College Week from 4th February to 9th February, 2026 with grandeur, enthusiasm, and wholehearted participation from students, faculty members, alumni, and invited dignitaries. The College Week is a flagship annual event of the institution designed to foster holistic development, encourage leadership, and provide a platform for students to explore their talents beyond academic boundaries.

The celebration was systematically organized under three major sections:

- Section A – Sports Events
- Section B – Musical and Cultural Events
- Section C – Literary Events

The entire programme culminated in a grand Valedictory Session and Prize Distribution Ceremony.

Day 1: Inaugural Ceremony (4th February 2026)

Cultural Rally

The College Week commenced with a vibrant and well-coordinated Cultural Rally in which students from all departments participated enthusiastically. The rally reflected the rich cultural heritage of Assam through traditional attire, folk dance, music, and thematic displays. Departments creatively presented tableaux highlighting social awareness, national unity, rural traditions, and contemporary issues.

The rally not only created a festive atmosphere but also promoted inter-departmental collaboration and teamwork.

Flag Hoisting and Shankari Cultural Performance (9:00 AM)

The National Flag was hoisted by Dr. Mukut Mani Shaikda, Director, Nonoi College, marking the formal inauguration of the celebration. The ceremony instilled a sense of pride and unity among students and staff.

A Shankari Cultural Performance followed, paying tribute to the spiritual and cultural legacy of Srimanta Sankardeva. The performance showcased devotional music and traditional elements of Assamese Vaishnavite culture.

Sahid Tarpan (9:30 AM)

A solemn Sahid Tarpan ceremony was organized to honor the martyrs of the nation. The programme was chaired by Mr. Yogeshwar Shaikia, Founding Club Worker of the college.

Distinguished speakers:

- Mr. Kanak Chandra Bora, Former Principal
- Mr. Manikehandra Babu, Former Secretary
- Mr. Duti Shaikia, Founding Worker

The speakers emphasized patriotism, moral responsibility, and youth empowerment in nation-building.

Cultural Procession (10:00 AM)

The Cultural Procession was inaugurated by Shri Jitu Goswami, Hon'ble MLA of Barhampur Constituency. Each department presented unique cultural themes, blending tradition and creativity. The competition was judged on coordination, presentation, message, and discipline.

Formal Inauguration & Olympic Flame Lighting

The College Week was formally inaugurated by Mr. Tapan Das, Former President, Assam Hockey Association. In his address, he encouraged students to balance academics with extracurricular engagement.

The Olympic Flame was lit by Nur Amin, Sports Secretary of the Students' Union Council, symbolizing sportsmanship, unity, and competitive spirit.

SECTION A – SPORTS EVENTS

The Sports Section of the 41st College Week Celebration was conducted with great enthusiasm, discipline, and competitive spirit at the Nonoi College Grounds from 4th to 9th February, 2026. The sports events aimed to promote physical fitness, teamwork, sportsmanship, and leadership qualities among students.

The competitions were categorized into Athletics Events, Team Sports, Indoor & Strength-Based Events, and Indigenous Games, ensuring wide participation from both boys and girls across departments.

1. Inauguration of Sports Events

The Sports Section was formally inaugurated following the lighting of the Olympic Flame by Nur Amin, Sports Secretary, Nonoi College Students' Union Council. The symbolic flame represented unity, perseverance, discipline, and the spirit of fair competition.

Participants took an oath to uphold the values of sportsmanship, honesty, and mutual respect throughout the competitions.

2. Athletics Events

The athletics competitions were conducted under proper supervision and systematic arrangements. These events tested the endurance, speed, agility, and determination of the participants.

Track Events

- 100 Meter Sprint (Boys & Girls)
- 200 Meter Sprint (Boys & Girls)
- 400 Meter Race
- 800 Meter Race
- 400 Meter Relay Race (Boys)

These races witnessed intense competition and remarkable performances. Students demonstrated excellent stamina and sports discipline. The relay race, in particular, highlighted teamwork and coordination.

---

Field Events

- High Jump (Boys & Girls)
- Long Jump (Boys & Girls)
- Weight Throw (Boys & Girls)
- Discus Throw (Boys & Girls)
- Javelin Throw (Boys & Girls)

The field events required strength, balance, technique, and precision. Many participants exhibited impressive athletic ability and dedication during these events.

3. Team Sports

Team sports played a vital role in strengthening cooperation, leadership, and collective responsibility.

Kabaddi (Boys & Girls)

Kabaddi matches were among the most exciting events. Players displayed agility, tactical thinking, and teamwork. The matches were conducted in a disciplined and competitive environment.

Volleyball (Boys & Girls)

Volleyball matches demonstrated coordination, communication, and strategic gameplay. Both boys' and girls' teams showed strong participation and team spirit.

Tug of War (Boys & Girls)

The Tug of War competitions generated high enthusiasm among students and spectators. The event emphasized unity, physical strength, and synchronization among team members.

4. Indoor and Strength-Based Competitions

These events tested mental focus, endurance, and physical power.

Weight Lifting

Participants showcased strength, concentration, and control. The event encouraged students to focus on physical conditioning and discipline.

Boxing

The boxing competition was conducted under supervision, ensuring safety and fairness. Participants demonstrated courage, strategy, and sports ethics.

Badminton (Boys & Girls)

Badminton matches were highly competitive and required agility, quick reflexes, and concentration. The event attracted significant participation.

Carrom and Chess

Indoor strategic games like Carrom and Chess tested analytical thinking, patience, and mental sharpness. These competitions encouraged intellectual engagement alongside physical sports.

5. Indigenous and Traditional Games

To preserve cultural heritage and promote inclusivity, traditional games such as:

- Bilebech
- Didkas
- Oret

- Dichaksh

were organized. These games encouraged participation from students who may not regularly engage in mainstream sports and helped preserve local traditions.

Participation and Management

Students from all departments actively participated in the sports events. The competitions were conducted under the supervision of faculty coordinators and the Students' Union Sports Committee. Volunteers ensured discipline, time management, and smooth execution of the schedule.

Proper arrangements for safety, equipment, and judging were maintained throughout the events.

Impact of Section A – Sports

The Sports Section significantly contributed to:

- Enhancing physical fitness and endurance
- Promoting discipline and punctuality
- Developing leadership and teamwork skills
- Encouraging healthy competition
- Building confidence and resilience
- Strengthening inter-departmental unity

The enthusiastic participation and sportsmanlike spirit displayed by the students made Section A one of the most dynamic and successful components of the 41st College Week.

SECTION B – MUSICAL AND CULTURAL EVENTS

Section B of the 41st College Week Celebration of Nono College was devoted to Musical and Cultural Events, which served as a vibrant platform for students to showcase their artistic talents, cultural knowledge, and creative abilities. This segment reflected the rich cultural heritage of Assam while also embracing contemporary artistic expressions. The events were organized in a systematic and disciplined manner under the supervision of faculty coordinators and the Cultural Committee.

The cultural programme commenced with a solemn and spiritually enriching Shankari Cultural Performance, paying tribute to the ideals and teachings of Srimanta Sankardeva. This performance created a dignified and devotional atmosphere, symbolizing unity, peace, and cultural pride.

A wide range of competitions and performances were organized under this section, including:

- Solo Song (Modern & Classical)
- Group Song
- Borgeet
- Folk Song
- Solo Dance (Classical & Modern)
- Group Dance
- Instrumental Music
- Drama and Skit Competition
- Fashion Show
- Talent Hunt
- Mr. & Miss College Competition

The Solo and Group Song Competitions witnessed melodious performances that highlighted vocal strength, rhythm, and emotional expression. Participants presented classical, folk, and modern songs with confidence and dedication. The Borgeet and Folk Song performances particularly emphasized the preservation of Assamese musical traditions.

The Dance Competitions displayed grace, coordination, and innovation. Classical dances reflected discipline and devotion, while modern dance performances added vibrancy and contemporary creativity. The Group Dance segment stood out for its teamwork, synchronization, and stage aesthetics.

The Drama and Skit Competition presented socially relevant themes such as environmental awareness, mental health, gender equality, social harmony, and youth responsibility. These performances were not merely entertaining but also educative and thought-provoking, spreading awareness among the audience.

The Fashion Show creatively represented ethnic attire, traditional costumes, and modern fashion trends. It encouraged students to express their individuality and confidence. The Talent Hunt event provided opportunities for students with diverse skills such as mimicry, beatboxing, stand-up performance, and unique artistic expressions.

One of the most anticipated events was the Mr. & Miss College Competition, where participants were evaluated on personality, confidence, communication skills, talent, and overall presentation. The competition aimed at holistic personality development rather than mere external appearance.

Qualified judges from relevant artistic backgrounds ensured transparency and fairness in evaluation. Winners and runners-up were awarded prizes and certificates during the closing ceremony.

The enthusiastic participation of students, supportive involvement of faculty members, and disciplined coordination of volunteers made Section B one of the most vibrant and successful segments of the College Week.

Impact of Musical and Cultural Events

The Musical and Cultural Events had a significant academic, psychological, social, and institutional impact on the students and the college environment.

1. Enhancement of Self-Confidence and Stage Competence

Participation in cultural performances helped students overcome stage fear and develop confidence. Many first-time performers expressed improved self-esteem and communication skills. Public performance enhanced articulation, body language, and personality grooming.

2. Promotion of Emotional Well-being and Positive Mental Health

Music, dance, and drama served as therapeutic outlets for emotional expression. Cultural engagement reduced academic stress and created a joyful campus atmosphere. The collective celebration strengthened positive emotions, belongingness, and social bonding—contributing to overall psychological well-being.

3. Preservation and Promotion of Cultural Heritage

Traditional performances such as Borgeet, Folk Song, and Shankari Cultural presentations reinforced awareness and respect for Assamese cultural heritage. Students developed pride in their cultural roots while understanding the importance of preserving indigenous traditions.

4. Development of Teamwork and Leadership Skills

Group performances required coordination, rehearsal discipline, and shared responsibility. Students learned cooperation, time management, and collective problem-solving. Organizing committees developed leadership, planning, and event-management skills.

5. Encouragement of Creativity and Critical Thinking

Students engaged in script writing, choreography design, costume planning, and stage management. These activities nurtured creativity, innovation, and artistic thinking. Social theme-based dramas enhanced critical awareness and social sensitivity.

6. Improvement in Communication and Interpersonal Skills

Events such as Talent Hunt and Mr. & Miss College rounds involved interaction, questioning, and spontaneous responses. These activities strengthened verbal communication, clarity of thought, and interpersonal competence.

7. Strengthening Institutional Unity and Inclusiveness

Section B brought together students from diverse departments, communities, and backgrounds. Shared rehearsals and performances fostered unity, mutual respect, and inclusive participation, strengthening campus harmony.

8. Holistic Development of Students

Beyond academic excellence, cultural activities contributed to emotional intelligence, aesthetic appreciation, discipline, and moral values. The events aligned with the vision of holistic education by nurturing both intellectual and creative dimensions of students.

9. Enhancement of Institutional Image

The high standard of performances and systematic organization reflected positively on Nonoi College. The cultural vibrancy enhanced the reputation of the institution as a nurturing ground for talent, creativity, and cultural excellence.

Section B of the 41st College Week Celebration was not merely a series of entertainment programmes but a meaningful educational and developmental experience. It significantly contributed to personality development, cultural preservation, psychological well-being, and institutional unity, thereby making the celebration enriching and memorable for the entire college community.

SECTION C – LITERARY EVENTS

Section C of the 41st College Week Celebration of Nonoi College was dedicated to Literary Events, aiming to foster intellectual growth, critical thinking, creativity, and effective communication among students. This segment reflected the academic vibrancy of the institution and provided a constructive platform for students to articulate their ideas, opinions, and literary talents.

The Literary Events were organized in a well-disciplined and academic atmosphere in the college auditorium and designated classrooms under the supervision of faculty coordinators and the Literary Committee. Students from various departments actively participated, demonstrating enthusiasm and scholarly engagement.

The competitions conducted under this section included:

- Debate Competition (Assamese & English)
- Extempore Speech
- Quiz Competition
- Essay Writing Competition
- Poetry Recitation
- Creative Writing (Short Story/Poem)
- Spell Bee Competition
- Just-A-Minute (JAM) Competition

Debate Competition

The Debate Competition was one of the most intellectually stimulating events. Participants presented well-structured arguments on contemporary social, educational, and national issues. Both Assamese and English categories encouraged bilingual proficiency and logical reasoning. The event enhanced analytical thinking, persuasive communication, and the ability to defend viewpoints with confidence and clarity.

Extempore Speech

The Extempore Speech Competition tested spontaneity, presence of mind, and clarity of thought. Participants were given topics on the spot and required to speak within a limited time frame. This event strengthened quick thinking, confidence, and public speaking skills.

Quiz Competition

Special Highlight: Innovative Quiz Session

A special attraction of Section C was the innovative Quiz Competition, which was conducted in an interactive and technologically advanced format for the first time in the history of the College Week. The quiz was presented through a projector-based system, making the session visually engaging and dynamic.

The Quiz was conducted by Quiz Master Shri Dibya Jyoti Baruah, whose energetic hosting style, well-structured rounds, and engaging interaction with participants and audience made the event highly exciting and intellectually stimulating. The use of multimedia elements such as images, audio clips, and visual questions added novelty and enhanced audience participation.

The competition included multiple rounds covering general knowledge, current affairs, literature, science, history, culture, and sports. The projector-based presentation ensured clarity, fairness, and active engagement of both participants and spectators.

This innovative format made the quiz not only competitive but also entertaining and educational. The audience responded enthusiastically, and the event became one of the most memorable highlights of Section C.

Impact of the Innovative Quiz Format

- Encouraged technological integration in academic activities
- Increased student engagement and audience participation
- Enhanced quick thinking and teamwork among participants
- Created a modern and dynamic learning environment
- Set a new benchmark for future literary events in the college

Essay Writing Competition

The Essay Writing Competition provided a platform for reflective and structured expression of ideas. Topics focused on youth empowerment, environmental responsibility, national development, mental health awareness, and social harmony. Students demonstrated originality, depth of understanding, and linguistic proficiency.

Poetry Recitation

The Poetry Recitation Competition highlighted emotional sensitivity and artistic expression. Participants recited poems in Assamese, English, and Hindi, focusing on pronunciation, voice modulation, and expressive delivery. The event celebrated literary appreciation and aesthetic sensibility.

Creative Writing

The Creative Writing Competition encouraged imagination and narrative skills. Students composed short stories and poems on assigned themes, reflecting creativity, originality, and critical insight.

Spell Bee and JAM Competition

The Spell Bee enhanced vocabulary, pronunciation, and language accuracy. The Just-A-Minute (JAM) Competition encouraged concise expression, confidence, and clarity in spontaneous speaking.

Qualified judges evaluated the performances based on content quality, presentation skills, originality, language proficiency, and confidence. Winners and runners-up were awarded prizes and certificates during the prize distribution ceremony.

The Literary Events of Section C significantly enriched the academic and intellectual atmosphere of the College Week and reinforced the institution's commitment to holistic education.

Impact of – Literary Events

The Literary Events had a profound impact on the intellectual, psychological, and social development of students.

1. Enhancement of Critical Thinking and Analytical Skills

Debate, essay writing, and quiz competitions required research, reasoning, and evidence-based arguments. Students developed analytical thinking and the ability to evaluate diverse perspectives.

2. Improvement in Communication and Language Proficiency

Events conducted in Assamese and English strengthened bilingual competence. Participants improved vocabulary, articulation, clarity of thought, and structured expression.

3. Development of Confidence and Public Speaking Skills

Public participation in debate, extempore, and JAM competitions reduced stage fear and enhanced self-confidence. Students learned to express opinions assertively yet respectfully.

4. Encouragement of Creative Expression

Poetry recitation and creative writing nurtured imagination, emotional expression, and aesthetic appreciation. Students explored themes reflecting social awareness and personal reflection.

5. Promotion of Academic Engagement

The Literary Events reinforced academic orientation during the festive celebration. Students remained intellectually active while enjoying the spirit of College Week, balancing academics with extracurricular development.

6. Fostering Healthy Competition and Sportsmanship

The competitions promoted constructive rivalry and mutual respect. Students appreciated peers' talents and learned to accept results gracefully.

7. Social Awareness and Responsible Citizenship

Debate topics and essays often addressed current social issues, environmental concerns, gender equality, and national development. These discussions enhanced students' sense of responsibility and civic awareness.

8. Holistic Personality Development

Section C contributed to emotional intelligence, intellectual maturity, leadership qualities, and disciplined thinking. Students developed skills essential for academic excellence and professional growth.

9. Strengthening Institutional Academic Culture

The active participation and high-quality performances reflected the strong literary culture of Nonoi College. The events reinforced the institution's identity as a center of academic and intellectual excellence.

Section C of the 41st College Week Celebration was not merely a series of competitions but a meaningful intellectual engagement that nurtured creativity, analytical thinking, communication skills, and social awareness. The Literary Events played a vital role in promoting holistic development and strengthening the academic foundation of the students, making the celebration both enriching and purposeful.

Valedictory Session and Prize Distribution Ceremony

The Valedictory Session and Prize Distribution Ceremony of the 41st College Week Celebration of Nonoi College was held with great dignity and enthusiasm in the presence of distinguished guests, faculty members, students, and staff. The closing ceremony marked the successful culmination of the week-long series of sports, cultural, and literary events.

The programme was graced by Shri Mohini Mohan Deka, retired teacher of Dimoria College, as the Special Guest of the valedictory session. His presence added significance and inspiration to the occasion.

The session commenced with a formal welcome address delivered by the Principal, who expressed heartfelt gratitude to all organizing committees, faculty coordinators, student volunteers, participants and supporters for their dedication and cooperation in making the College Week a grand success. A brief report highlighting the major events and achievements of Sections A, B, and C was presented before the gathering.

Following the introductory proceedings, the much-awaited Prize Distribution Ceremony was conducted. Winners and runners-up of various competitions under Sports, Musical & Cultural, and Literary Events were awarded trophies, medals, and certificates. The distribution of prizes created a moment of pride and celebration for the achievers, while also motivating other students to participate actively in future events. The atmosphere was filled with applause and appreciation as students were recognized for their talents, hard work, and sportsmanship.

The highlight of the session was the inspiring and motivational speech delivered by Shri Mohini Mohan Deka. In his address, he appreciated the discipline, enthusiasm, and talents displayed by the students throughout the College Week. He emphasized the importance of holistic education, stating that co-curricular and extracurricular activities play a vital role in shaping confidence, leadership qualities, teamwork, and character.

He encouraged students to remain focused on their goals, uphold moral values, respect teachers and parents, and contribute positively to society. Drawing from his long teaching experience, he shared valuable life lessons on perseverance, dedication, and self-discipline. His speech was thoughtful, motivating, and deeply inspiring, leaving a lasting impression on the audience.

The valedictory programme concluded on a solemn and patriotic note with the singing of the National Anthem, symbolizing unity, respect, and national pride.

Finally, at 5:00 PM, the celebration formally came to an end with the ceremonial Flag Down, marking the official closure of the 41st College Week Celebration. The lowering of the flag symbolized the successful completion of the week-long festivities and the collective spirit of unity and achievement.

The Valedictory Session and Prize Distribution Ceremony thus brought the 41st College Week to a meaningful and memorable conclusion, reflecting the spirit of excellence, unity, and holistic development that defines Nonoi College.

Conclusion

The 41st College Week Celebration of Nonoi College concluded successfully with great enthusiasm, discipline, and collective participation. The week-long programme, comprising Sports Events (Section A), Musical & Cultural Events (Section B), and Literary Events (Section C), truly reflected the spirit of unity, creativity, intellectual vibrancy, and holistic development that the institution upholds.

The celebration was not merely a festive gathering but a meaningful educational experience that provided students with opportunities to explore their talents beyond academics. Through sports activities, students demonstrated physical fitness, teamwork, leadership, perseverance, and sportsmanship. The cultural events nurtured creativity, emotional expression, cultural pride, and confidence. The literary competitions strengthened intellectual engagement, analytical thinking, communication skills, and social awareness.

One of the most significant outcomes of the College Week was the development of self-confidence and personality enrichment among students. Many participants overcame stage fear, learned to work collaboratively, and discovered hidden talents within themselves. The active involvement of students in organizing, managing, and coordinating events further enhanced their leadership abilities and sense of responsibility.

The celebration also strengthened institutional bonding. Students from different departments, backgrounds, and communities came together with a shared spirit of cooperation and harmony. Faculty members and organizing committees worked tirelessly to ensure smooth execution of all events, reflecting a strong culture of teamwork and dedication within the college.

The innovative elements introduced this year, such as the projector-based quiz format, added a modern dimension to the celebration and demonstrated the institution's commitment to integrating creativity and technology in co-curricular activities.

The Valedictory Session and Prize Distribution Ceremony provided well-deserved recognition to the achievers and served as motivation for all students to strive for excellence. The inspiring words of the Special Guest reinforced the values of discipline, hard work, integrity, and holistic growth.

Overall, the 41st College Week Celebration successfully fulfilled its objective of promoting all-round development of students—physically, intellectually, emotionally, socially, and culturally. It strengthened the academic and cultural fabric of Nonoi College and reaffirmed its commitment to nurturing responsible, confident, and socially aware citizens.

The celebration concluded on a note of pride and accomplishment, leaving behind cherished memories and renewed enthusiasm among students and staff alike. The spirit of unity, creativity, and excellence witnessed throughout the week will continue to inspire the college community in the days to come.
