Report on Orientation Programme for
ULLAS (Understanding of Lifelong Learning for All in Society)
Department of English, Nonoi College

16th Sept, 2025

A one day orientation program was held at Seminar Hall, Nonoi College on 16th September, 2025 organized by department of English, Nonoi College in collaboration with District Literacy Mission Authority, Nagaon for training of literacy functionaries for FY-2025 under the banner of ULLAS (Understanding of Lifelong Learning for All in Society) at Seminar Hall Nonoi College. Students from Nonoi College expressed their desire to serve as volunteers under this mission. The training was led by Dr. Sekh Abdul Hakim, assistant professor, Department of English cum Institutional Model Officer (INO) for ULLAS, Nonoi College. He delivered his speech on the different strategies of visiting the learners and unfolded the significance of the program. He elaborated how ULLAS is rooted in the idea of social responsibility and inclusive learning. The faculty emphasized that the initiative is not merely an academic requirement but a moral duty, aimed at empowering illiterate people in the communities through education, skill awareness, and sensitization programs. Students were encouraged to participate actively as volunteers and to serve as ambassadors of knowledge in their respective localities. The session concluded with an interactive question-answer round, where doubts regarding fieldwork, safety, and reporting procedures were addressed.
